MISSIONARY FEATURE

John & Marcia Rempel
Serving with OM in Austria

Many things to be thankful for…
When we moved to Hainburg a year ago, we asked God to give us grace to be faithful witnesses, light and salt in the community, to bring the right people to us to speak to, and for a harvest of righteousness. And to help us get our place ready so we can move in.

Last Saturday night a young father committed his life to Christ in the presence of Asafe and myself. He is our first fruit. We're praying for his wife, among others.

A city councillor introduced me to the mayor last month. Apparently they would like to meet to share ideas for revitalising the inner city.

I was asked to marry one of Marcia's mentee couples. On Saturday.

We should have our building permit in hand by the weekend!

Appreciate you, and your prayers. We have lots of work ahead.
