Jeremy & Kara Hawbaker - serving with Wycliffe

"Kara had a good conference in Turkey with the Asia teams. It was encouraging to hear other translation and literacy stories from a similar part of the world and to talk with people who believe that we can do this too. She confirmed some important things for the next step in the translation project. Thank God with us for this! Pray for the right mother tongue team to come together to start Scripture translation, hopefully later this year.

Pray for the potential trip to Asia that Kara could take this summer to meet people who could be part of that team. We mentioned in our recent prayer letter that one of the kids would like to go along on that trip - if you would like to and are able to contribute to that child's travel, you could contact us at karaandjeremy@gmail.com. Please keep praying for our whole family, that we would follow where God is leading and we would trust His love for us.

Pray for the remaining 4 Prophet stories that we are working on.
Pray for Jeremy and his work at Eldad and the participants that he is working with there.
Pray, too, as he thinks of the future and what might be next for him. We are very thankful to God for you!"
