John & Marcia Rempel - serving with OM in Austria

General Intro: It began in 1998 when John and Marcia bought their house in Vienna where they raised their 3 children and were involved in various ministries with OM Austria and Business for Transformation. In 2021, sensing it was time for transition and praying with Mandy and Asafe, their daughter and son-in-law, God directed them to Hainburg. What did they hold in their hands to save some here? Their home in Vienna. They sold it and through that, bought a property in ruins in the old medieval city near the Slovakia border with strong Catholic roots, no evangelical church and no known believers. Marcia felt called to pray for the city, believing that this city will be won on the basis of prayer. Weekly prayer nights and recently a day of prayer with a team of 25 from OM Austria walking through the city, praying for its peace and prosperity, is all part of asking that God would build His church in Hainburg. God used the renovation of the ruined property to fast-track relationships with neighbors and businesses. They are now moving into phase 2, the business stage, creating an environment for evangelism, stewarding each relationship for His Kingdom.
