John & Marcia Rempel - serving with OM in Austria

Stories: John and Marcia, involved in Kingdom business in Hainburg, Austria, are doing what John trained many others to do - begin a Business for Transformation. They are witnessing God building His church in this old medieval city near the Slovakia border.. Relationships with tradesmen they hired for their project, connecting with businesses, and Asafe and Mandy meeting parents at school and the playground has given them regular opportunities to begin conversations pointing to Jesus. Now stewarding these relationships, they have heard the following: a hotel manager, after many months of regularly watching John and Marcia, said "I can learn from you." Asafe met a young father (L) on the playground and through John and Asafe, L was introduced to Jesus. L said, "You came to Hainburg, if for no other reason, because I needed to find Jesus." A neighbor who has watched them through all the challenges in their project said, "How can I find purpose in my life?" They now meet weekly for Bible reading for seekers and they meet biweekly with a group of 6 to 8 for discipleship. Is this the beginnings of a church?
