Missionary Feature for the month of March

Paul & Lois Thiessen- serving with AIMM/EMC

Mango Kin was one of the elders who came to our house years ago to listen to readings of our Siamou translation. He, together with other elders, gave us suggestions of how to improve the translation. When we visited his house in February, I gave him a copy of the Gospel of Luke. He was delighted. I encouraged his grandchildren to learn to read Siamou, so that they could then read aloud to their Grandpa. Mango Kin was pleased with this suggestion. Now they will be able to read about the shepherds who went to Bethlehem to see the new-born Christ-child and about the feeding of the 5,000. Now they will be able to read the words of Jesus when he said that there is rejoicing in heaven when one sinner repents.

Solo's father, Lassina, was also one of the elders who helped us with our Bible translation in the village. He listened carefully and thoughtfully. The day we brought Lassina a copy of the Gospel of Luke, I asked Solo to read a passage, to illustrate the powerful message of this Gospel. Solo read with good expression and all the people listened carefully. It was obvious that Solo, who had himself done the translation, was reading something that was of great importance to him. He is a gifted teacher. It was inspiring and encouraging to watch and listen as the Word of God was read and received in that setting.
