Missionary Feature for the month of June

Ruth Penner serving with Setting the Captives Free in Winnipeg

A weekend in Ruth's ministry:

One Saturday morning, I missed a call from Alicia. Both Alicia and her sister Trista are pregnant and waiting for inductions. Trista had her induction and almost died from an amniotic aneurysm; she was now in intensive care. I spent the day with the family to support them, give rides, and pray for them. I stayed at the hospital overnight so Alicia could go home for the night, and so I could be close in case Trista gets worse. She improves overnight and is taken off the drugs to induce a coma.

On Sunday is the appointment for Alicia's induction, but she goes into labour on her own and is told to come back that night. I pick her up that evening, and first bring her to see Trista - Trista squeezes her hand and won't let go. After I drop Alicia off at the hospital, I get a call from Penelope, another woman we support. Penelope's daughter has been raped. I go pray with Penelope and finally leave to go home around 11:00 pm.

Alicia has her baby, Trista and her baby survived, and all four are doing well.
