Missionary Feature for October

Reza and Bahar Azimi, Omid, Arya, Anita - Working with Afghans around the world.

Fatemeh is a refugee mother of three living in Pakistan. Her journey began when she invited her friend Mahnaz to join her in a traditional Islamic practice for her sick son. When Mahnaz visited, she gently encouraged her to pray instead, trusting that God could heal. She prayed for Fatemeh's son, in the name of Jesus—and he was healed. Fatemeh was amazed and asked to learn more about this God who listens and heals. Because Mahnaz was being discipled through Ariana Ministries, she connected Fatemeh with us. Bahar began discipling her, and today Fatemeh is on Step 17 of the 30 Step Discipleship Course. She recently shared, "I know Jesus now. My heart is changing."

Her story reflects the deep spiritual hunger and the longing for hope among Afghan refugees. Many others, like Fatemeh, are being followed up daily, meeting Christ, and experiencing His transforming work. Your prayers matter for the people and the land of Afghanistan.

Vote for Women's Ministry Director -The LT has decided to make the Women's Ministry Director a permanent position and we want to affirm Priscilla Wiebe in this position with a member vote on Oct.18. Please be in prayer for her and this upcoming vote.
